

Events to Last a Lifetime

Catered Too in the News

San Jose Mercury News

October 20, 2009

Sal Pizarro

...By the way, the chefs at Catered Too get points for creativity: everyone loved the Galatini, a bubbly mix of champagne and pomegranate juice. And there was a lot of buzz around the appetizers which were themed to match the museum's five decades of life (mini burger sliders represented the current decade).

The movable feast was ushered over to the Fairmont for dinner just before 8pm with a drum performance by San Jose Taiko.